

Cadent Update

On Monday the 6th we are planning to decommission the existing Gas pipeline in preparation to tie in the new diversion. During the decommissioning work we will need to carry out a venting operation which may generate noise, however we are planning on decanting most of the Gas into the system via a nearby Cadent gas terminal, by doing so this will mean we minimise the venting activity and therefore the noise generated.