INTRODUCTION

These standing orders are based on the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders updated July 2018.

V2 This is version two of Model Standing Orders 2018 (England) updated on April 2022. Update to Model Standing Order 18 only.

v3 Updates to Model Standing Orders 8b, 14 & 18 plus gender neutral wording.

HOW TO USE MODEL STANDING ORDERS

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. The Hints with Canwell Parish Council's standing orders are based on the NALC model standing orders which incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the model standing orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for model standing orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated here.

These standing orders do not include model financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer. The Hints with Canwell Financial Regulations are contained in a separate document available to all members.

DRAFTING NOTES

Model standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. It is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. Model standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements so they have been adopted as drafted or amended to suit this council's needs. It is NALC's view that all model standing orders will generally be suitable for councils.

For convenience, 'he' is used for both male and female persons. The word "councillor" is used in model standing orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights. NB Hints with Canwell parish council has no 'non-councillors with voting rights'. All members of the council have been either elected or co-opted and all have full voting rights. The only time there will be a 'non-councillor with or without voting rights' will be if a committee appoints a non-councillor to assist; such an appointment may not be made to a committee with financial responsibilities.

Committee members who are non-councillors will be entitled to vote only if the committee's function relates to:-

- the management of land owned or occupied by the council;
- the functions of the council as a harbour authority;
- any function relating to the promotion of tourism;
- any function relating to the management of a festival
